In "How to Convert a 'Four Banger' for Stopwatch Functions" (August 1977), the IC2 and IC3 designations are shown transposed in Fig. 2. The Fig. 1 schematic diagram is correct.

In the Parts List in "Build a Digital Camera Shutter Timer" (August 1977), DIS1 through DIS5 are described as common-anode displays; they are actually common-cathode displays.
